ANNA JORDAN 1922-2013

DEFIANCE – Anna Belle Hoover Sudlow Jordan, 90, of Defiance, passed away Tuesday, Jan. 1 at Defiance Inpatient Hospice Center.

She was born May 12, 1922 in Antwerp, the youngest of six children of Samuel L. and Flora Jeannette (Mobley) Hoover. She attended school in Antwerp and Jensen Beach, Fla. After the death of their mother, “Nettie,” Anna and her sister, Eileen, were raised by their father, Sam, their oldest sister, Rosa (Hoover) Traylor and her husband, Andrew Traylor, along with their daughter, Mary (Traylor) Lichty. In spite of a young life filled with difficulties, Anna became a strong-willed, resourceful, hardworking, caring and loving mother and wife. Her family will miss her 90-plus years of humor, honesty, witticism and ever ready advice, all of which she never hesitated to share.

On Sept. 1, 1939, at the age of 16, she married Glenn G. Sudlow, who died in 1944. On Nov. 16, 1946, she married Garner E. “Jack” Jordan, who died in 2001. She was a member of the Antwerp VFW Auxiliary and the Royal Neighbors of America.

Surviving are her children, Linda (John) Brecht of Continental, Judy Copsey of Woodburn, William (Barbara) Jordan of Zolfo Springs, Fla. and Lori (Neal) Manon of Defiance; 16 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren.

She also was preceded in death by two children, Shirley and Glenn M. Sudlow; a granddaughter, Sara Manon; two great-granddaughters, Alexis Coffin and Enedina Martinez; a brother, Jasper, in childhood; and sisters, Rosa Traylor, Gertrude in infancy, Pearl Starry and Eileen in childhood.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 5 at Dooley Funeral Home, Antwerp.

Burial will be in Maumee Cemetery.

Visitation is from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday with a VFW Auxiliary service at 11 a.m.

Preferred memorials are to Woodburn Christian Children's Home, The Antwerp VETS Memorial or Community Health Professionals.

Condolences and fond memories may be shared at www.dooleyfuneralhome.com.
